Old Business

Everything seems to be complete, as far the show goes, we just need to apply for next year's date.

The banquet was discussed and will be on Saturday January 21st. Lisa Maag motioned and Allie Walther second to have it at the Northridge Tennis Club in Findlay. Motion passed. The meeting will be at 4:00 with the meal being served at 6:00. The awards will be following dinner. We have the room for a total of 5 hours and we do not have to clean up afterwards. Kelly is checking on having a cash bar. Valerie Heydinger volunteered to do the silent auction. Andy will send an email to everyone. It was also brought up to try to get separate checks for the banquet and memberships to avoid any confusion.

Lisa gave a report on the queen. Next year's competition is done and the new queen will be announced at the banquet. Lisa reported Abby was sick so she was not in attendance. Lisa said she has not been able to use any of the clothes in the queen's closet so she has had some added expenses. Andy moved to give Abby $400 for her entry fee and some extra for expenses. Motion passed. Lisa also asked about getting gifts for the queen candidates. It was mentioned that it used to be the responsibility of the outgoing queen as well as members could contribute.
