

Secretary Report

Ohio-Michigan-Indiana Quarter Horse Association
November 14, 2011

The November meeting was called to order by president Andy Bonner. The September secretary's report was read, Corky Becker moved to approve and Nancy Venekotter second; approved as read. There was no meeting in October. The treasurer's report was given by Corky Becker and approved as read. Lisa Bush mentioned the fee of $19.00 for the domain of the website may be coming due. She will check on it and let Corky know. There were 8 members present.

Old Business

The banquet which is Saturday January 21st at the Northridge Tennis Club 900 Melrose Ave. Findlay. The meeting was changed to 4:30 with the meal being served at 6:00. The awards, and the crowning of the queen, will be following dinner. We have the room for a total of 5 hours and we do not have to clean up afterwards. There will be a buffet at $12.50 per person and there will be a cash bar which the cost has been donated to pay the bartender. It was brought up to get separate checks for the banquet and memberships to avoid any confusion. Kelly Gibson was absent but asked through Pat Seifert, to remind anyone wishing to run for office to let her know. She also asked if it was ok to vote before the banquet, which was approved. She will be mailing out ballots in December. Lisa Bush volunteered to help Valerie Haydinger with the silent auction. It was also approved that everyone who brings a silent auction donation will be in a special drawing for a free OMIQHA membership for 2012. Members are also encouraged to bring a gift for the 2012 queen to the banquet.

Deb Herman reported there were no scholarship applications this year.

Since neither Lisa Maag, Allie Walther, or Abbey Maier were in attendance there was no queen report.

New Business

The 2012 showbill was gone over. There were a couple more small fry classes added. It was suggested to move small fry western pleasure back to back with small fry horsemanship to help make it easier for the kids. We will again offer a free open halter class with a paid entry to an amateur or youth halter class.

Olga moved to adjourn, Deb Herman second. Meeting adjourned.
